

Kendriya Vidyalaya Pattom selected as top-ranked govt school

The school was also ranked first in the 2015 rankings.

Kendriya Vidyalaya Pattom

Thiruvananthapuram: Kendriya Vidyalaya, Pattom has been selected as the top ranked government school in the country in the Education World India School Rankings (EWISR) 2016 conducted by Centre for Forecasting and Research Pvt Ltd (C-Fore). The ranking classified 1,000 schools in 13 categories including day-cum boarding, boarding and international schools. The school was also ranked first in the 2015 rankings.

The award will be received by School principal S. Ajayakumar at the Education world India School Rankings Awards Nite In New Delhi, on September 23. Meanwhile, Kendriya Vidyalaya Sangathan New Delhi has awarded two employees of Kendriya Vidyalaya, Pattom shift II with National Incentive Award-2016. Ms Resmi V, TGT (English) and S Ramachandran Nair, Assistant were the staff selected for the award.

The school has two shifts from Class I to Class XII, with a roll of 4000 students and 150 staff. The First Shift has all the three streams - Science (two sections), Commerce and Humanities (one section each) - while the Second Shift has only Science and Commerce streams (one section each). The school celebrated its golden jubilee year for Kendriya Vidyalaya Pattom.

THIRUVANANTHAPURAM, September 11, 2016

Encore for KV Pattom

• STAFF REPORTER

Kendriya Vidyalaya, Pattom, has been ranked the no. 1 government school in the country in the Education World India School Rankings for the second successive year.

The award will be received by school Principal S. Ajayakumar at a function at New Delhi on September 23.

Education World has been publishing the rankings with C-fore, a Delhi-based market research and opinion poll agency, for the past eight years. The survey is conducted across the country across 10 parameters to judge educational excellence.

THE TIMES OF INDIA

B S Anilkumar | TNN | Sep 9, 2016, 10.43 AM IST

KV Pattom ranked best govt school again

THIRUVANANTHAPURAM: Kendriya Vidyalaya (KV) Pattom here emerged as the best among government schools in the country for the second consecutive time in the Education World India School Rankings (EWISR) 2016.

The survey rates and ranks the country's top 1,000 schools in 13 categories including day-cum boarding, boarding and international schools. In the survey conducted by Centre for Forecasting and Research Pvt Ltd (C-Fore), several schools in Kerala have figured in the top 10 lists in various categories.

Interestingly, for the first time, GVHSS for girls, Nadakkavu in Kozhikode district emerged as the third best school in government schools category. The school recently made headlines when academic facilities and quality were improved phenomenally following initiatives with public-private participation. The seventh, eighth and ninth positions in the same category were also bagged by KVs at West Palakkad, Puranattukara in Trissur and Keltron Nagar in Kannur. The results were announced by C-Fore in Bengaluru on Thursday.

In the day-cum-boarding school category, Choice school in Kochi has been voted number seven. Pallikkoodam in Kottayam emerges as the 8th best school in the category. In the international schools category, Sadhbhavana World School, Kozhikode bagged ninth position.

Three schools in Kerala are among the best 10 government boarding schools category. They are Jawahar Navodaya Vidyalaya (JNV), Chendayad, Kannur (Rank 3), JNV, Chennithala, Alappuzha (Rank 4) and JN Neriamangalam, Ernakulam (Rank 6).

